Public History

M.A. in Public History

Degree Requirements

- Credit Hours: Students are required to complete a minimum of 33 graduate credit hours in History. Up to 12 credits can be at the 400 or 500 level. Six of the 33 credits can be from outside history, with permission from adviser.

- Grade Point Average: Students must earn a minimum overall GPA of 2.75, and a GPA of 3.00 in coursework applied to their graduate program.

- Progress toward graduation: Student will be evaluated annually by the program coordinator. If adequate progress is not made, students may be placed on probation or suspended from the program. All students should complete a plan of study by the end of their second semester. HIST 614 should be completed by the end of the student’s third semester in the program.

- Additional Requirements: Students will develop a professional portfolio while taking their core courses; the portfolio will include an applied research project completed as part of several courses.
