

School Physical Activity Leadership

School Physical Activity Leadership

CERTIFICATE CODE - CG75

Discover your fully customizable pathway to a graduate certificate in School Physical Activity Leadership. Tailored for K-12 health and physical education teachers, this 12-credit online program seamlessly integrates theory with practical application across key domains including adapted physical education, technology and supervision, effective teaching principles, comprehensive school physical activity programs, models-based instruction, and athletic administration.

Course Requirements: Students must have a cumulative GPA of 2.75 to graduate from the program. Each required class must be completed with a grade of a C- or better. Graduate students with a cumulative grade point average (GPA) below 2.75 will be placed on academic probation.

Code	Title	Hours
Students must complete two of the following options for a total of 12 credits:
Option One: Inclusive Pedagogy		6
PET 581	Adapted Physical Education
PET 576	Adapted Physical Education-Advanced Laboratory
Option Two: Leading School Change		6
PET 573	Instructional Technology in Physical Education
PET 585	Physical Education Supervision and Advocacy-Advanced Laboratory
Option Three: Effective Teaching Practices		6
PET 583	Principles of Effective Teaching in Physical Education
PET 575	Principles of Effective Teaching in Physical Education-Advanced Laboratory
Option Four: Comprehensive School Physical Activity Programs		6
PET 580	School Physical Activity Programs
PET 577	School Physical Activity Programs-Advanced Laboratory
Option Five: Evidence-based Practice		6
PET 565	Models-based Physical Education
PET 574	Models-based Physical Education-Advanced Laboratory
Option Six: Sport Program Leadership		6
SM 571	Interscholastic Sport Organization and Administration
SM 578	Leadership in Interscholastic Athletic Administration

Certificate Learning Outcomes

SCHOOL PHYSICAL ACTIVITY LEADERSHIP

- Program Design and Management: Graduates will demonstrate proficiency in designing, implementing, and managing comprehensive school physical activity programs, integrating theoretical principles and practical strategies to create engaging and effective learning environments for K-12 students.
- Instructional Innovation: Graduates will leverage technology and modern instructional approaches to enhance teaching and assessment in physical education, utilizing digital tools and data-driven insights to optimize student learning outcomes and progress tracking.
- Leadership and Administration: Graduates will demonstrate competence in leading and supervising physical education programs, including managing interscholastic sport initiatives, collaborating effectively with colleagues and stakeholders, and adhering to ethical and legal considerations in the realm of school physical activity leadership.