Athletic Coaching Education

Bachelor of Science in Athletic Coaching Education

The Athletic Coaching Education (ACE) major prepares students interested in pursuing a variety of roles in the coaching profession. These roles include but are not limited to:

- An athletic coach at the youth or interscholastic level
- Coaching older master athletes
- Coaching individuals with disabilities
- Strength coaching
- Fitness coach

The Bachelor's Degree consists of a sequenced curriculum that focuses on professional knowledge, sport-specific science, and pedagogical skills mixed with practicum experiences that provide students with several opportunities to learn and apply the principles and practices of coaching across a wide range of health, recreation, and performance-based professions, as well as to develop professional networking and social skills. The ACE curriculum follows the National Standards for Sport Coaches 2nd Edition published by the National Association for Sport and Physical Education (NASPE).
