Criminology, B.A.

Degree Offered

Bachelor of Arts

Nature of the Program

The criminology major focuses on the social roots and implications of criminal behavior and the operation of the criminal justice system. Students learn to apply the theoretical and methodological tools of sociology to make sense of crime and social control in modern society, while selecting from a variety of substantive course topics. These include but are not limited to: juvenile delinquency, street crime and gangs, corporate and white collar crime, hate crime, terrorism, drug use and abuse, media and crime, the culture of police work, and punishment and social control.

The sociological approach to crime distinguishes criminology from the related field of criminal justice, which emphasizes the procedural activities of criminal justice agencies. Criminology treats crime as the product of complex social forces, seeking to understand why laws are made in the first place, how and why these laws are violated, and how society responds when laws are broken. This holistic societal perspective prepares graduates to pursue a broad range of careers such as policing, security, corrections, law, social services, and business. The major also prepares students for graduate studies in the social sciences in pursuit of academic or applied research careers or for professional training in law, public administration, social work, and related fields. For more information about this program, please visit the departmental website (https://soca.wvu.edu/students/undergraduate-students/b-a-in-criminology/).

Students who earn a degree in the Eberly College of Arts and Sciences must complete the University requirements, the College requirements for their specific degree program, and their major requirements.

Minors

All students have the possibility of earning one or more minors; please consult the list of all available minors and their requirements (http://catalog.wvu.edu/undergraduate/minors/). Please note that students may not earn a minor in their major field.

Degree Requirements

Students must complete WVU General Education Foundations requirements, College B.A. requirements, major requirements, and electives to total a minimum of 120 hours. For complete details on these requirements, visit the B.A. Degrees tab on the Eberly College of Arts and Sciences (http://catalog.wvu.edu/undergraduate/eberlycollegeofartsandsciences/#bachelorofartstext) page.

Departmental Requirements for the B.A. in Criminology

All Criminology majors are required to take a common set of core courses and choose major electives based on their scholarly and career interests.

- Capstone Requirement: The university requires completion of a Capstone course. Criminology majors must complete SOC 488 successfully.
- Writing and Communication Requirement: Criminology Bachelor of Arts students fulfill the Writing and Communication Skills requirement by completing ENGL 101 and ENGL 102 (or ENGL 103), and two SpeakWrite Certified CoursesTM: SOC 488, and a 2nd course selected from:
 ANTH 350, ANTH 352, ANTH 354, ANTH 450, ANTH 457, ANTH 458, HIST 203, HIST 207, HIST 221, HIST 241, HIST 242, HIST 259, HIST 264, PSYC 241, CRIM 318, SOC 323, SOC 360, WGST 150, WGST 225.
- Calculation of the GPA in the major: A minimum GPA of a 2.0 is required in all courses applied to the major, with a minimum grade of C- is required in SOC 191, ANTH 105, and SOC 101. If a course is repeated, all attempts will be included in the calculation of the GPA, unless the course is eligible for the D/F repeat.
- Experiential Learning: Students are encouraged to pursue a Professional Field Experience (SOC 491) or independent Study (SOC 495) in their junior or senior year, combining experiential work with previously acquired skills in a project appropriate to their career goals. These courses may be taken for variable credit and will count towards graduation credits, but not major requirements.

Major Learning Outcomes

CRIMINOLOGY

Students graduating with a BA in ${\bf Criminology}$ will have the ability to:

- 1. Describe the sociological approach to crime and social control and how it is similar to and different from other approaches.
- Describe the history and core components of the American criminal justice system (police, corrections, and courts), and provide examples of ways that society shapes and is shaped by these institutions.
- 3. Discuss how criminological theories and research contribute to our understanding of crime, victimization, and the criminal justice system and to contemporary public policy.
- 4. Apply ethical principles to the conduct of criminological research and the applications of its findings.
- 5. Critically analyze contemporary issues in crime and justice by retrieving and synthesizing appropriate information and evidence and identifying implications for research and practice/policy.
- 6. Demonstrate effective, clear and persuasive communication skills according to disciplinary conventions
