Economics

Degree Offered

- Bachelor of Arts

Nature of the Program

The Department of Economics offers two majors in economics: one through the College of Business and Economics and the other through the Eberly College of Arts and Sciences. The College of Business and Economics grants a bachelor of science in economics and the Eberly College of Arts and Sciences grants a bachelor of arts with a major in economics.

The program leading to the B.A. degree is designed for students who wish to combine fundamental training in economics with a liberal arts education. In addition to the general education and related requirements, students have in excess of forty credit hours of unrestricted electives.

Economics students are taught to identify the costs and the benefits of a decision, which are often not obvious. The economist has the skill to identify the real consequences of a decision. That skill is valued highly in many aspects of business and government. Economics is a useful major for anyone interested in a career in banking, business, foreign service, law, public policy, and any other field in which the ability to make or analyze decisions is important. The demand for people with degrees in economics, both at the graduate and undergraduate levels, is high. In recent years firms such as Amazon and Microsoft have hired a number of economists to improve pricing, strategy, and evidence-based decision-making within the company.

Students who earn a degree in the Eberly College of Arts and Sciences must complete the University requirements, the College requirements for their specific degree program, and their major requirements.

Minors

All students have the possibility of earning one or more minors; for more information, please consult the list of all available minors and their requirements (http://catalog.wvu.edu/undergraduate/minors/). Please note that students may not earn a minor in their major field.

Certificate of Global Engagement

Students in the Eberly College, regardless of their major, can earn a Certificate of Global Engagement. Completion of the Certificate demonstrates the student’s knowledge of diverse cultures, as well as the ability to communicate and interact effectively with people of different cultural backgrounds. Students will be required to apply their knowledge of contemporary issues and global social contexts to their course work and their broader citizenship. For details regarding Certificate requirements, please visit the Eberly College page (http://catalog.wvu.edu/undergraduate/eberlycollegeofartsandsciences/#otherdegreeextent).
