English, B.A.

Degree Offered

• Bachelor of Arts
• BA in English/Secondary Education (http://catalog.wvu.edu/undergraduate/eberrlycollegeofartsandsciences/englishseced/)

Nature of the Program

Tailor your degree in English to your interests by focusing on literature and cultural studies, creative writing, English secondary education, or professional writing. Explore the power of language to open doors, shape worlds, and realize dreams. How will you contribute to the world?

Focusing on Literature and Cultural Studies allows you to immerse yourself in the books, films, and other texts that define our global culture. Cultivate critical thinking, communication, and research skills to fill your toolbox for a lifetime of learning and engagement while preparing for a variety of professional schools and career paths.

An emphasis on Creative Writing lets you study the craft of writing fiction, poetry, or creative nonfiction with accomplished authors. Take workshops on writing for children, writing and photography, and writing about place. Meet the many authors invited to read on campus and help produce Calliope, WVU's undergraduate literary journal.

With an emphasis on Professional Writing and Editing you will learn to translate complex information into clear prose for diverse audiences and analyze how information flows through organizational structures. Apply these skills in a capstone internship with a local business, non-profit, or government agency to see your writing come alive.

Can you name a teacher who made a difference in your life or a book that changed how you think? With a Bachelor of Arts in English/Secondary Education you can bring those experiences to others. You'll complete all the requirements for teacher certification in WV and gain valuable classroom experience. Please see the English/Secondary Education (http://catalog.wvu.edu/undergraduate/eberrlycollegeofartsandsciences/englishseced/) listing for more information.

Students who earn a degree in the Eberly College of Arts and Sciences must complete the University requirements, the College requirements for their specific degree program, and their major requirements. English is a SpeakWrite (https://speakwrite.wvu.edu/) certified program.

3+3 Program

The Department of English participates in the 3+3 Program with the WVU College of Law, which is an opportunity for qualified undergraduate students to earn their bachelor's degree and law degree in six years instead of seven years. Students accepted into the 3+3 program begin taking classes at WVU Law in what would be their senior year of college. Students participating in this program must meet certain eligibility criteria and progress benchmarks. For questions regarding your eligibility, please contact your department advisor.

Minors

All students have the possibility of earning one or more minors; follow the link for a list of all available minors and their requirements (http://catalog.wvu.edu/undergraduate/minors/). Please note that students may not earn a minor in their major field.

Certificate of Global Engagement

Students in the Eberly College, regardless of their major, can earn a Certificate of Global Engagement. Completion of the Certificate demonstrates the student's knowledge of diverse cultures, as well as the ability to communicate and interact effectively with people of different cultural backgrounds. Students will be required to apply their knowledge of contemporary issues and global social contexts to their coursework and their broader citizenship. For details regarding Certificate requirements, please visit the Eberly College page (http://catalog.wvu.edu/undergraduate/eberrlycollegeofartsandsciences/#otherdegreeextext).

Publications

Calliope, a publication of WVU student writing, is sponsored by the Department of English and the English Honorary and Club.

Cheat River Review (http://cheatriverreview.com/) is a literary magazine edited by MFA students and the Council of Writers of the West Virginia University MFA program.

Resilience is a digital, peer-reviewed journal of the Environmental Humanities. It provides a forum for scholars from across the humanities disciplines to speak to one another about their shared interest in environmental issues and to engage in an evolving conversation about what the humanities contributes to living and thinking sustainably in a world of dwindling resources.
Victorian Poetry is a critical journal of Victorian literature, edited by the Department of English. Established at WVU in 1963, this internationally known journal has subscribers in 27 countries.

Degree Requirements

Students must complete WVU General Education Foundations requirements, College B.A. requirements, major requirements, and electives to total a minimum 120 hours. For complete details on these requirements, visit the B.A. Degrees tab on the Eberly College of Arts and Sciences (http://catalog.wvu.edu/undergraduate/eberlycollegeofartsandsciences/#bachelorofartstext) page.

Departmental Requirements for the B.A. in English

- Capstone Requirement: The university requires the successful completion of a Capstone course. English majors choose, depending on focus, ENGL 418, ENGL 491A or ENGL 496 to meet this requirement. Students should consult with an adviser regarding the Capstone course.

- Writing and Communication Requirement: The English Bachelor of Arts is a SpeakWrite Certified Program™. SpeakWrite Certified programs incorporate and develop students' written, verbal, visual, and mediated communication skills across the curriculum.

- Calculation of GPA in the major: A minimum GPA of 2.0 is required in all English courses. Students must earn a grade of C- or better in all courses that are counted toward the English Major Requirement plus ENGL 101 and ENGL 102, or ENGL 103. If a course is repeated, all attempts will be included in the calculation of the GPA unless the course is eligible for a D/F repeat.

- Area of Emphasis: In addition to the major requirements, students may select a concentration in Creative Writing (15 credits) or Professional Writing and Editing (15 credits). Please see below for course and grade requirements for each emphasis. For English majors who obtain an Area of Emphasis, a maximum of sixty hours in English, exclusive of ENGL 199, ENGL 101 and ENGL 102, or ENGL 103, ENGL 491 may be included within the 120 hours (minimum) required for graduation. English majors with an area of emphasis may find some courses overlap with major requirements.

- Benchmark Expectations: For details, go to the English Degree Progress tab (http://catalog.wvu.edu/undergraduate/eberlycollegeofartsandsciences/englishlanguageandliterature/#degreeprogresstext).

Degree Progress
- At the end of their second semester in the program, students will have completed ENGL 101, 102, 191, 199, and 200.
- After three semesters students will have completed 9 additional credits of ENGL courses above ENGL 200.
- After four semesters in the program, students will have completed 12 additional credits in ENGL.
- All majors must meet with an English department adviser each semester.

Students who do not meet these benchmarks may be removed from their major.

Major Learning Outcomes

ENGLISH

Upon successful completion of the B.A. degree, English majors will be able to:

1. Locate and interpret texts within diverse literary, cultural, and historical contexts.
   - Identify genre conventions and analyze their effects;
   - Identify and analyze effects of complexity or ambiguity in texts, culture, and discourse;
   - Situate texts in social, economic, political, and literary histories;
   - Connect texts to other literary or cultural texts.

2. Demonstrate a general knowledge of the social and structural aspects of the English language.
• Analyze diachronic and synchronic language variation;
• Articulate the role of social forces on language variation;
• Apply linguistic concepts to solve language problems;
• Analyze natural language, predominantly English.

3. Demonstrate a range of contextually effective writing and communication strategies.

Literature and Cultural Studies:

• Demonstrate awareness of academic discourse and research on a literary topic;
• Apply research, analysis, argumentative development, and critical thinking skills;
• Create and revise communications with the appropriate tone, style, and sentence structure found in academic writing, including incorporation of research;
• Demonstrate command of academic written English and conventions of documenting research.

Creative Writing concentration:

• Situate work within the historical and literary development of the appropriate genre;
• Create and revise a thoughtful, sophisticated work of art that is the product of a careful process of invention and revision;
