

Multidisciplinary Studies

Degree Offered

- Bachelor of Multidisciplinary Studies (B.MdS.)

The Eberly College Multidisciplinary Studies program (MDS) offers two degree options, the Bachelor of Multidisciplinary Studies degree (B.MdS.) and the Bachelor of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies (B.A.). Both the Multidisciplinary Studies and Interdisciplinary Studies degree programs are comprised of three related minors. The program does not limit students to courses of study in a particular college or school, but rather stresses the importance of breadth of knowledge and cross-disciplinary communication. The MDS and IDS degrees emphasize flexibility and problem solving. Students will learn to use specialized knowledge from individual disciplines to analyze problems from divergent perspectives. Students will also apply multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary techniques to communicate the strengths of their self-chosen course of study.

MDS and IDS students choose three minor areas and must demonstrate how these fields of study work together toward his/her educational and/or career goals. For example, a student may choose the areas of business administration, sport and exercise psychology, and professional writing and editing, with the goal of a career in sports and special events or marketing/coordinating. MDS and IDS students participate in a capstone during their final semester, incorporating their three disciplines into a senior project, presentation, and paper.

Students who earn a degree in the Eberly College of Arts and Sciences must complete the University requirements, the College requirements for their specific degree program, and their major requirements.

Minors

All students have the possibility of earning one or more minors; view a list of all available minors and their requirements (<http://catalog.wvu.edu/undergraduate/minors>) here. Please note that students may not earn a minor in their major field. MDS students may add a fourth minor to complement their three core minors.

Certificate of Global Engagement

Students in the Eberly College, regardless of their major, can earn a Certificate of Global Engagement. Completion of the Certificate demonstrates the student's knowledge of diverse cultures, as well as the ability to communicate and interact effectively with people of different cultural backgrounds. Students will be required to apply their knowledge of contemporary issues and global social contexts to their course work and their broader citizenship. For details regarding Certificate requirements, please visit the Eberly College page (<http://catalog.wvu.edu/undergraduate/eberlycollegeofartsandsciences/#otherdegreestext>).

MDS Graduates

The breadth of study available to Multi- and Interdisciplinary students empowers them to be successful in any field they choose. MDS and IDS degree holders are flourishing in business, teaching, entrepreneurial endeavors, health professions, and public and health administration. They are earning advanced degrees in social work, business administration, and law. The flexibility of the IDS and MDS degrees ensure that students are prepared for success in today's rapidly changing workforce.
