Honors EXCEL (Experiential and Community-Engaged Learning) Program

OVERVIEW
The Honors EXCEL program supports WVU undergraduate students in experiential and community-engaged projects. Students will develop skills in leadership, project management, communication and collaborative scholarship. Students will create scholarly products appropriate to their project, while advancing the service mission of WVU.

HONORS EXCEL ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS
Students may apply for the program regardless of previous enrollment in the Honors College. Students with a cumulative GPA 3.4 or higher can apply for the program in the spring of their sophomore year (typically in the fourth semester). Students with lower GPAs may apply with a faculty recommendation.

Admissions will prioritize projects that feature the following experiential values.

The project:

• is long-term (several semesters), feasible and innovative.
• represents an identifiable enhancement of a knowledge base or set of skills already being pursued by the student, either via coursework or extracurricular activity.
• builds on prior work, research or scholarship and proposes appropriate methodologies, processes or practices.
• is mentored by a WVU faculty or staff member.
• has an expectation of positive impact to a community (defined broadly) beyond the benefits to the student alone.
• includes at least some aspects that are unique to the applicant. Although all projects will likely be collaborations with faculty, staff, community members and/or other students, all projects must demonstrate a sense of ownership by the student.

HONORS EXCEL PROGRAM BENEFITS
• Opportunities to deeply pursue projects of academic and personal interest
• Curricular and financial support for student projects
• Mentorship from faculty in the discipline and in the Honors College
• Connections with a community of Honors students
• Priority registration for classes before general population students
• Recognition at graduation, on the transcript and on the diploma

HONORS EXCEL PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS
Students in the program will complete an experiential learning project over the course of several semesters. Most projects will fall under one of the following headings: 1) Discipline-specific research; 2) Creative works, innovation and design; 3) Global enrichment; 4) Community engagement or social action; 5) Internships; or 6) Collaborative work in a group of peers. Other projects will be considered through the application process. All projects will culminate in a work of scholarly or creative work appropriate to the project.

• Complete the two EXCEL Program courses: HONR450 (Project Development) in the first semester of participation in the program and HONR451 (Honors EXCEL Capstone) in the last semester of participation.
• Complete 6 credits of approved experiential learning. These credits may come from a variety of course numbers including, but not limited to, 491, 495, 497 or 498. In some circumstances, students may count courses toward both the degree program and the Honors EXCEL program.
• Complete a set of out-of-class experiences each semester. These will be defined by the student and their faculty mentor and should include experiences that contribute to and enhance work in the EXCEL program.
• Meet ongoing requirements for good standing:
  • After year one, students must have completed HONR450, the required out-of-class experiences and have filed a project prospectus with the Honors EXCEL office.
  • Students who do not meet at least 3.0 institutional GPA will be suspended from the program.
• Meet appropriate final requirements, including:
  • Completion of all program requirements
  • Submission of the final written portion of the project.
