Student Code of Conduct

Students and student organizations at WVU Tech are free to exercise their fundamental and constitutional rights, but in doing so are required to conduct themselves responsibly within the context of the university community. Because student status neither abridges nor extends the rights and responsibilities afforded by local, state, and national law, students are expected to abide by the rules and regulations WVU Tech sets forth governing their conduct. These are delineated in Policy 31 (http://bog.wvu.edu/files/d/4c27ce4e-93b5-451b-a557-c9d8ab25a773/policy-31-dec-18-2015-amendment.pdf): University Student Conduct Code, which was adopted by the West Virginia University Board of Governors on December 18, 2015, and which is described in the 2018-2019 Bearfacts. A copy of the Bearfacts may be accessed online at http://students.wvutech.edu/.

Office of Student Programming and Organizations

WVU Tech strives to provide students with a memorable college experience through healthy and supportive social, recreational, and educational programs.

The Office of Student Programming and Organizations oversees student meeting and activity rooms located in The B.E.A.R. (Benedum Events and Activities Rooms), student organizations, student organization storage, campus programming/activities, and intramurals. Student organizations include a variety of opportunities for students to become engaged in campus life. Organizations include: professional/honorary societies, fraternity and sorority life, faith based, student government, student activities, and other special interest/social groups. Active membership in student organizations affords opportunities to expand friendships, develop professional networks, pursue personal interests and hobbies, and cultivate talents as leaders and project managers. The Office of Student Programming and Organizations is located at in The B.E.A.R (Benedum Events and Activities Rooms), located in the Benedum Center. Details about programs and services are posted at http://students.wvutech.edu/ or 304-929-1310.

Student Government Association (SGA)

The Student Government Association (SGA) is made up of students who are chosen in campus-wide elections held each spring. One of the SGA’s most important functions is developing a budget by which student activity fees are appropriated to the many activities and organizations found on campus. In addition to these financial responsibilities, SGA appoints student representatives to serve on most of the committees of Faculty Assembly,
Student Life and Services including publications, social activities, discipline, financial aid, academic affairs, athletics, and alumni activities. Residence halls are self-governed through residence hall councils. Students are responsible for managing their operations, social activities, and care. Fraternal organizations affiliated with WVU Tech maintain their own governing bodies. Information about student organizations may be accessed online at http://students.wvutech.edu/.

University Police

The University Police is a community-oriented department committed to providing a safe environment in pursuit of WVU Tech’s educational activities through problem solving, proactive policing, enforcement of state and local laws, and a high level of preparedness for our community.

Officers are armed, uniformed and vested with law enforcement authority both on campus and in the City of Beckley, WV. Our training, as with other agencies in the state begins with 16 weeks at the WV State Police Academy followed by yearly training exceeding state requirements.

We offer an ever-expanding number of programs for the protection of our students and their property as well as education and information to assist them during and beyond the college experience. The divisions of Student Life work closely together in the identification of both positive and problem areas to provide the best in customer service.

The WVU Tech Police Department is located at 313 South Kanawha Street. Our phone number is 304.929.2677 (COPS). For details about campus police services, visit http://students.wvutech.edu/campus-safety.

Because living on campus helps students both strengthen their college connections and achieve better academically, WVU Tech requires all first- and second-year students who have completed fewer than 59 credit hours (including transfer credits) to live in University housing. The few exceptions to this policy, which must be verified, are:

- Students who will be residing with parents who live within commuting distance (50-miles radius of campus)
- Married students
- Students with children for whom they are the primary care-giver
- Students who are 21 years of age and older, and
- Students that are veterans

Given the demonstrated benefits of living on campus WVU Tech also strongly encourages upper-class students to live on campus as well. Complete information about on-campus living, as well as policy and procedures governing campus housing are posted online at http://housing.wvutech.edu/.

Residence Life is located at 505 S. Kanawha Street.

Students Called to Serve in the Military

1. Students who withdraw from the University for military service up to and including the 12th week of the semester will receive a full refund of their fees and be administratively withdrawn from their classes. No course grades or credit will be awarded.

2. Students who leave the University for military service after the 12th week of the semester should work with the designated contact person in their home college (usually the academic associate/assistant dean). The student may also contact the WVU Tech Registrar's Office at 304.929.1450. The contact person will assist the student in reviewing the student's eligibility for credit for their courses on a course-by-course basis with the instructors.

3. The contact person will work with the student's instructors to gather grade information for the student. If the course is not in the student's home college, the contact person can work with his/her counterpart in the appropriate college. Several outcomes are possible:

   • If the course is substantially complete and the student has done passing work, the student should receive the grade earned at that time. It is anticipated that this would be the outcome in the majority of the courses. NOTE: Students who receive orders with sufficient advance notice are expected to notify their professors of their upcoming deployment date and meet with their professors to come to an agreement on what regular course assignments they can reasonably complete prior to the deployment date (the details of this arrangement should be included in a contract initialed by both the instructor and the student; contracts must be placed in the student’s file). Students should not be penalized for not completing assignments, quizzes, tests, or exams due after their deployment date.

   • If a critical competency has yet to be covered in a competency-based course, the instructor should award a grade of "I" and work with the student to develop a plan to complete that critical part of the course. To alleviate confusion at a later date, the plan should be in writing and signed by both the instructor and the student. Students called to active duty for a relatively short duration that includes exam week may arrange for an "I" with provision to make up the final exam after completing the period of duty.

   • If the student chooses to withdraw from the course, the contact person will work with the appropriate University office to provide an administrative withdrawal.

LEAVE FOR MILITARY DRILL

In accordance with the “Veteran Friendly” designation, WVU faculty may allow students who are members of the US Armed Forces (including the National Guard and Active Reserve) to make up tests and assignments that are missed during a semester if the student is officially called up for military service requirements for a limited period and if the delayed coursework completion will not irreversibly impact the student's ability to appropriately master the required subject matter. Absence due to required military obligation should not exceed a cumulative amount of three weeks. Students should notify faculty members of the circumstances of their absence as far in advance as possible and work with faculty members to agree upon a plan of action for completing course requirements.

Tech Adventures

Tech Adventures offers students opportunities to experience outdoor recreation activities as part of the co-curricular program at WVU Tech. Launched in July 2016, the program offers first-year students outdoor orientation programs, outings, seminars, outdoor equipment rental and trip planning resources. Activities vary from semester to semester and include hiking, rock climbing, paddling, mountain biking and winter sports at the many regional parks and forests of central West Virginia. The program offers students the opportunity to challenge themselves to reach new heights both physically and mentally, visit new places, learn outdoor skills and make new friends. Programs are led by program staff and local guide services. In addition to co-curricular activities, Tech Adventures is partnering with the College of Business, Humanities and Social Science to offer academic courses in Adventure Recreation Management. For more information about Tech Adventures, call 304.929.0327, email TechAdventures@mail.wvu.edu or visit http://techadventures.wvutech.edu. First-Year Seminar (WVUE 191)

Under the aegis of academic affairs, the first-year seminar is a required one-credit course for all first-time, full-time first year students and full-time transfer students who enter with fewer than 24 credit hours. This course is designed to assist new students in making a smooth transition to the Tech community, and it includes units in goal setting, learning preferences, critical thinking, information literacy, and communication, among others, all of which are essential to successfully completing the all-important first semester. Instruction is provided by members of the faculty and student life personnel. Guest experts are occasionally invited as speakers. Students have an opportunity to establish early relationships with faculty in their academic departments and confer with their academic advisors to develop short- and long-range academic and career plans.
