Cost of an Academic Year’s Work

Tuition and fee structures (https://tuition.wvu.edu/all/) vary by residency classification and academic program at WVU locations. Students are charged for University tuition, college tuition, and University fees. Some programs may require additional charges. Students may also be charged an additional fee for WVU Online courses or programs. Senior citizens (https://admissions.wvu.edu/how-to-apply/senior-citizen-students/) of West Virginia (age 65 and older) may take courses at WVU for reduced tuition and fees.

Additional cost may include room and board, books and supplies, transportation, and personal expenses.

Identification Card

Registered students are eligible for an identification card and can find more information at Mountaineer Card Services (https://mymountaineercard.wvu.edu). The Mountaineer Card gives access to certain activities and privileges on campus. For example, students may be given access to the Student Recreation Center, the PRT, and athletic events, and may ride the local bus system, Mountain Line Transit Authority (https://www.busride.org/), by using their ID card.

WVU reserves the right to refuse issuance of an identification card. Misuse may result in confiscation of the card. Lost or broken cards can be replaced for a fee.

Residency Status

The Residency Policy is established by and can be found at the BOG Academics Rule 2.4, Residency Status for Admission, Tuition, and Fee Purposes webpage (https://policies.wvu.edu/finalized-bog-rules/bog-academics-rule-2-4-residency-status-for-admission-tuition-and-fee-purposes/). The WVU Office of Admissions assigns students a residency status for admission, tuition, and fee purposes. Students who are determined to be residents of West Virginia pay “resident” tuition and fees at WVU; students who are residents of other states and nations pay “non-resident” tuition and fees.

Academic Common Market

West Virginia University participates in the Academic Common Market (ACM) of the Southern Regional Education Board (SREB) for graduate programs. ACM eligible graduate programs are available at WVU for residents of SREB states. The ACM program is not competitive or merit-based, but applicants must meet state residency and college program requirements.

For more information about the ACM at WVU, visit the Graduate Academic Common Market webpage (https://graduateeducation.wvu.edu/finances/financial-support/academic-common-marketplace/).

For further information regarding specific state requirements, students should contact the WVU ACM coordinator (shirley.robinson@mail.wvu.edu).

Tuition and Fee Regulations

Policies concerning late fees, financial holds, removal from classes, and collections can be found on the Financial Responsibilities (https://hub.wvu.edu/billing/policies/) page. Students can review their charges, waivers (university tuition, housing, or dining), scholarships, and payments online through the WVU MyAccount, which can be accessed through the WVU Portal at portal.wvu.edu (https://portal.wvu.edu). Payments of tuition and fees and other charges can be made through the WVU Portal. A processing fee is added to credit card payments. Excess payments or financial aid remaining in a student's account after all University charges are paid are returned to the student via a refund (https://hub.wvu.edu/billing/refunds/).

WVU places restrictions on students who have outstanding debts to the University. Restrictions may include, but are not limited to, the withholding of a student’s registration or diploma. Diplomas will not be issued to any student before payment is made for all tuition, fees, and other indebtedness to any unit of the University.

Students who fail to drop courses prior to the end of the add/drop period are responsible for tuition and fees whether or not they attend those courses. Withdrawal Policies (https://registrar.wvu.edu/registration/withdrawal-policies/) are explained on the Office of the University Registrar website.
